

E-PROJECT - BEAUTY OF BEACHES

THE KERAMA ISLANDS

The Kerama Islands are a subtropical island group 32 kilometres (20 mi) southwest of Okinawa Island in Japan.

Four islands are inhabited: Tokashiki Island, Zamami Island, Aka Island, and Geruma Island.^[2] The islands are administered as Tokashiki Village and Zamami Village within Shimajiri District, The Kerama-shotō coral reef is a Ramsar Site.

Kerama Shotō National Park is a national park in Okinawa Prefecture, Japan. Established in 2014, it is located in and around the Kerama Islands.