

E-PROJECT - BEAUTY OF BEACHES

THE BAZARUTO ARCHIPELAGO

The Bazaruto Archipelago is a group of islands situated off the coast of Mozambique in the Indian Ocean. Here's some information about this beautiful archipelago:

1. Location: The Bazaruto Archipelago is located approximately 30 kilometers off the coast of southern Mozambique, near the town of Vilanculos.
2. Islands: The archipelago consists of several islands, the main ones being:

The Bazaruto Archipelago is renowned for its rich marine biodiversity. The surrounding waters are home to a variety of marine species, including dugongs, dolphins, whales (seasonally), and numerous fish species. The coral reefs are particularly vibrant and attract divers and snorkelers from around the world.